EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY IN OUR SCHOOLS

In a nation only three or four generations removed from a marginal, pioneer economy, we take for granted that our heritage will provide equal opportunity for all, just as it did for our pioneer forebears. We can well be proud of this tradition in our Canadian way of life. We must safeguard it.

"Equality of Opportunity" in education has been given concrete expression in Ontario in the past twenty years. Hundreds of fine new schools have been built, and, outside the city areas, transportation has been provided to bring opportunities for schooling to remote, isolated, farm families. In our Windsor system different courses, or branches, and within these different branches different programmes have been set up to provide students who have varying interests, aptitudes, and abilities the opportunity to complete a High School education. A barrage of publicity from newspapers, magazines, radio and television has impressed upon all of us the importance of schooling. Huge billboards have repeated the slogan "Stay in School". All this is evidence that in Canada schooling is held in high regard and that there is opportunity for all.

BUT, equality of opportunity is meaningless if the students do not take advantage of it. "Stay In School" is not enough. "WORK IN SCHOOL" is better advice. The opportunity to gain an education is equal for all, but many pass the opportunity by because work is involved. No course, or branch, or programme, can offer education without work. "Equality of Opportunity" is only realistic to those who know that "Equality of Opportunity to Work" provides "Equality of Opportunity in Our Schools."

NEW TEACHERS

This year Walkerville welcomes many new teachers to the staff.

Mr. Vodarek, who was with us last year, came from the University of Toronto where he studied Engineering. He now teaches Science, Mathematics, and Physics at Walkerville. He also coached our Senior "B" football team.

Miss Wright majored in History at Assumption University and previously taught at St. Mary's District Collegiate in St. Mary's, Ontario. She now conducts classes in Physical Education, History, and Geography. She feels Walkerville students are very agreeable and a pleasure to work with. Welcome, Miss Wright.

Mr. Cruickshank who taught second year comparative anatomy at Assumption is now teaching Chemistry and Science. He has a Bachelor of Science degree and has had two years post graduate work in Chemistry and Biology. He says that, "Walkerville is just the same as it was when I was here seven years ago except the kids are a little younger."

Mr. Kupnicki who studied Biology and Chemistry at Assumption University came to Walkerville to teach Chemistry and Science. He helped coach our football team and has also been an instructor in our cadet corps.

Mrs. Streich who is teaching French and English at Walkerville had honours in these same subjects at Assumption University. She works in the library and feels the pupils here have much school spirit.

Mr. Montour, who attended the Universities of Michigan and Stanford, comes to Walkerville from Harms Public School in Detroit, and now teaches Physical Education. He coached the cross country, senior basketball, and track teams. Being a former Walkerville student, he of course feels that this is the best school in Windsor.

Mrs. Letourneau attended Queen's University where she had honours in French and English, and the Sorbonne and Middlebury College where she took French. She comes from Pitman, New Jersey, and now teaches French at Walkerville. She says that she has already met many friendly people here including both students and teachers.

THE HISTORY OF WALKERVILLE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

Walkerville Collegiate had its beginning in 1921 on the second floor of King George School on Ottawa Street. Mr. Robert Meade was Principal and was assisted by one other teacher.

On November 2nd, 1922, Mr. Meade, with a staff of ten teachers, welcomed the public to the formal opening of the new Walkerville Collegiate at 2100 Richmond Street. The new building consisted of twenty-two ordinary classrooms. Besides these there were special rooms for the teaching of Manual Training, Cadet Corps, Household Science, Sewing, Biology, Art, Physics, and Chemistry. The student body also made use of the library, the pool, the auditorium, and the gymnasium.

The total enrollment consisted of only 200 students which seemed very few for the large structure but from 1922 to 1923 the Windsor-Walkerville Technical School occupied the top floor of the building under the supervision of W. D. Lowe, the principal, until they moved into their present building the following year.

Mr. J. L. McNaughton succeeded Mr. Meade as principal when the latter retired in 1929. It was under Mr. McNaughton's guidance and direction that Walkerville's kilted Cadet Corps was formed and it has won renown ever since.

Walkerville students have also led the way in the field of athletics. The school became a basketball stronghold and in 1928 at Montreal, the boys' team won the first Eastern Canadian interscholastic basketball series ever held. Our football, soccer, volleyball, swimming, and track teams have also won many laurels and our "TARTANS" have brought fame and glory to the halls of our Alma Mater; Bill Fritz, a graduate of our school, was a Canadian Olympic runner at Berlin in 1936.

In 1942 the Commercial Department was started so that Walkerville not only produced graduates with academic degrees but also those skilled in the affairs of the business world, and their excellent training speaks well of our school.

Our school is honoured at having had many former students serve in World War II and seventy-six of them sacrificed their lives in order that the ideals of democracy in which we so firmly believe might live on.

At Mr. McNaughton's death, Mr. W. N. Ball was appointed to the position of principal in 1943. On May 25, 1955 Mr. Ball celebrated the official opening of the new and very much needed addition to our school. It included a Cafeteria, Music Room, Rifle Range, Store Rooms, new Dressing Rooms, and a large gymnasium. Several rooms had also been renovated, and a very modern Home Economics Room and a Manual Training Department were added.

With the death of Mr. Ball in 1956, Mr. B. W. Brown followed in his footsteps and became principal, an office which he still holds today.

Growing from a small school of 10 teachers and 200 students to its present staff of 48 teachers and an enrollment of over 1100 students, Walkerville has led the way among other Collegiates with its many outstanding achievements in Cadets, Athletics, and high scholastic standards. We feel that without exception every student presently enrolled in our school is proud to be a part of the student body which forms Walkerville Collegiate Institute.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Three cheers to thee, beloved school,
Collegiate we so revere,
To all the world thy praise we'll tell,
Of thy virtues all will hear.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

In basketball, on soccer field,
Debating and all the rest;
In sports and academic work
You rank among the very best.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

Fond memories and thoughts of thee,
Shall e'er in our hearts abide.
Dear Walkerville thy name shall we Cherish with abundant pride.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

CHORUS:

Collegiate of our hearts, a song to thee we'll raise.
Our Alma Mater dear we'll shout afar thy praise.
Colours of Blue and White, we'll keep thy standards high.
Collegiate of our hearts, we'll love thee till we die.

YOUTH

Someone said that youth is wasted on the young. Are we the waste products of a materialistic world, living from weekend to weekend, seeking the easy way out of all problems and doing everything with the least amount of effort? Are we the youth who slam the door when opportunity knocks and turn our back when society calls us to fill our positions? Are we those people who are accused of rebelling against the world by shunning our duties as students and by overthrowing all authority in an attempt to prove ourselves?

These accusations apply to few and we can almost justify these actions, for consider the times we live in. Today's youth has seen more events and experienced more shocks than any other generation has witnessed in a life time. In our eighteen years we have seen governments overthrown by revolution, man conquer space, the violence of race riots, the verge of nuclear war — even a president assassinated. Is it any wonder that some flee when the world beckons them to accept their responsibilities.

Today's youth is fully aware of their responsibilities. We are the key of fate and the framework upon which the future will be built. Aristotle was far from wrong when he stated that education was the framework of society and we know the success of our future endeavours depends on how well we are trained and prepared to face them. It will be our task to establish a peaceful world even though Communism and nuclear war threatens, but will succeed not as waste products but as youth!

"O youth! The strength of it,
the faith of it, the imagination of it!

Joseph Conrad.

AGORA

Even before you elected this year's Argora, last year's Rump Agora was ordering W. C. I. beanies. The sale of these beanies was a great success in boosting both the Agora's treasury and our school spirit.

After the election of the 1963-64 Agora, an excellent sale of Agora cards under the supervision of Financial Convenor Guido Van Rosendaal made it possible for Walkerville to re-adopt Constantine Andreopoulos of Greece. Monthly letters from Constantine were read to the school over our new public address system.

The annual Agora semi-formal dance was again a roundabout this year, with an Oriental theme. The "Mikado Ball" was a great success, thanks to the magnificent decorations supplied by Social Convenor Joan Howison and Publicity Convenor Marilyn Bradley with her decorating committee. Special thanks also go to Cheryl Wild, who was a great help in supplying ideas for the decorations.

A competition between the girls and the boys of Walkerville for this year's UNICEF collection produced one of the largest donations we have yet contributed to this organization.

Tim Laird, your vice-president, was in charge of the Graduation Exercises. Thanks to his efforts, the evening was a very pleasant and successful one. Tim has also been in charge of an Assembly Committee which has drawn up an organized program for future assemblies. I am sure that our assemblies will be of excellent calibre next year.

Starting this year, ten percent of all profit made by an organization in the school will be placed in a scholarship fund for Walkerville students. Within a few years, many more deserving graduates will receive financial assistance for their university careers.

I would like to thank Mr. Brown and Mr. Nighswander for their counsel and guidance, and especially Mrs. Lawson who has worked very hard as this year's Agora teacher-sponsor. The secretaries are to be thanked for their never-ending willingness to help in countless ways. The Inner Executive, Tim Laird, Jeanne Thompson, Guido Van Rosendaal, Joan Howison and Marilyn Bradley are to be thanked for their support throughout the year.

To all of you, the students of Walkerville, goes my deepest gratitude for making this year such a success.

"Send me a man who reads!"

A recent survey reveals that Walkerville Collegiate grade 13 students read an average of 2.4 books a month.

In other surveys conducted in North America schools, class leaders are always ardent readers.

Often, what a young man reads is what he will become. A survey of 100 scholarship-winning high school seniors showed that nine out of 10 read at least one book a month. The total number of books read by the group was 400.

Then 100 high school seniors who had been accepted by various colleges, but had not been awarded any type of academic scholarship were interviewed. In one month, only six out of 10 read at least one book. Total number of books read: 175. The conclusion is as clear as print.

Men who read more achieve more.

And they are almost twice as likely to be leaders. Of 100 scholarship winners, 67 were officers or committee heads of at least one service, social or athletic organization. Only 39 of 100 non-scholarship winners had a similar distinction.

The message is plain. Reading is often a mainspring to leadership.

Youth is fast discovering that reading is the best stimulus for the adventures of the mind. Adventures that are immediate, and all-absorbing. Good for a lifetime.

How Fast Do You Read? Here is an Easy Way to Find Out

The average reading speed is 250 words per minute. Some people can read ten times that fast. The surprising thing is that speed actually increases comprehension.

To find out how fast you read, simply have someone time you for five minutes. Then, count the number of words you've read and divide by five.

If you're below average, chances are you haven't been concentrating hard enough.

Keep your eyes and your mind on the page. After a while you'll discover that you don't have to keep going back to find your place. You'll eliminate the problem of re-reading sentences, paragraphs, even complete pages.

Young men and women who read more — achieve more.

HONOUR SOCIETY

The Honour Society, set up in 1959, is fast becoming a tradition of Walkerville Collegiate. By means of the Honour Society students are given an opportunity to gain merit for their academic, athletic, and other curricular activities.

When a student acquires 100 points he becomes a member of the Honour Society, for which he receives a crest. At 175 points he receives further honour and a ring. At 250 points he receives an individual trophy and his picture is mounted on the wall. No more than seventy points from one category may be obtained within a period of six years, thus students qualifying for membership must be proficient in several fields.

There are now 46 members in the Honour Society. Lynne Craig and Anne Topping were the first Walkerville students to qualify.

MR. H. R. HUGILL

This year, much to the regret of the Walkerville student body, one of the most beloved teachers, Mr. Hugill, is retiring.

Mr. Hugill, a University of Toronto graduate, came to Walkerville after teaching in London for a few years. He has taught for thirty-three years at W.C.I. and will be missed by everyone.

Walkerville will never forget you, Mr. Hugill, and we all wish you a happy, well-earned retirement.

J.F.K.: WE REMEMBER HIM

We remember him, the quick, ready laugh,
The quiet determination, the love of life,
The ecstatic, captivating energy, but now a silent epitaph

Of eternal flame and mourning, husbandless wife.
It was a Friday, a Friday afternoon, the hour read two,

Then came the crackling voice, came the message, came grief.

Few had ever met him, yet when told this one man's life was through

Why the tightening in the stomach, shocked and staring disbelief?

Our minds registered the event, duly processed,
duly filed,

And saw hate also claim the hater, saw the body laid to rest.

Yet why do they talk of him in the past, and why no young man beside his young child?

Why is it so unreal, so many tears, so severe a test?

But the God who tried us so, knows our love he did not dim

For you see we have the simple words, "We remember him."

A SECRET RETREAT

A tiny island in the blue
Lets gentle peace flow over you;
Seagulls soar, wheel way up high,
Snowy breasts on an azure sky.
The brooding pines in grandeur stand
Frowning on the golden sand.
Whispering soft, I hear them sigh:
Guarding the island 'til they die.
The rocks are warm from summer heat;
Laughing waves play at my feet.
The island, my respite from care—
When sorrows seem too great to bear.
The naked beauty of the scene
Gives me hope and peace serene.
Breathing love, to quell the strife,
I now can face the storms of life.

THE SEA

It is melted topaz lying still,
And stinging spray cutting deep,
Providing azure life to a black shark's gill
Or smoothing a pebble with polish and sweep.
It is immense, mad, Wagnerian power
Sinking vessels, destroying homes, breaking dams,
Or sprinkling in shower to a maidenly flower
And bestowing an abode to a lowly clam.
It is green or blue, minute or great, captive or

In point of fact, in the end, it is simply—the sea.

JOSEPH STEWART, 11A

those who knew him best. He has built his home upon the foundation of those who came before him and he has defended it even until death, so that others may live thereafter. He has encountered the wintry blasts of life in the form of war, depression, plague, storm and need and has always prevailed. A rapidly progressing world has hardened his heart and opened his mind to the daily tortures of time. An automatic device which originally created as a luxury has turned into a pulsating monster threatening horrible consequences with every throb. Based on this, he has found a time to be born and a time to die; a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance; a time to keep silence and a time to speak; a time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace; a time to learn and a time to teach; a time to write and a time to be written of; a time to gain and a time to pay. From the throwing of a stone he has progressed to the traversing of continents with missiles, leaving his fellow man only a few moments to prepare to die. He has threatened himself outwardly, stopping only at the final ultimatum—complete obliteration.

Man has been writing the pages of time since its beginning, sometimes reading them as a lesson, others only as a pastime. He will continue this, telling of great, wondrous deeds and of compunctious mistakes. Deeds because he is good, mistakes because he is human. Yes, a man will live on because he has the will, the means, the strength and the cause to prevail. He will be born and he will die. He will love, hate, weep and laugh in the very same way that he did centuries before and for the very same reasons. And when the soft, mournful tolling of a church bell is heard reverberating through the lofty wind-swept mountains, made crimson by the last dying rays of a flaming, setting sun, he will know that his seasons of life will soon become an era and his purpose is not but to die.

SENIOR PROSE SECOND PRIZE WHAT PRICE FREEDOM?

Peter Schmidt, his body covered with sweat and mud, crawled towards the barbed-wire wall in East Berlin. Silently he crept through the damp, foggy night, one hand stretched in front of him searching for trip wires. Progress was slow. Periodically Peter would look up, his eyes seeking the dim outline of The Wall, and his ears straining for the metallic click of the guards' heels as they stoically patrolled the frontier.

A yellow search-light penetrated the grey mist. Peter instantly hugged the ground, half burying his face in the mud. As he lay there, his mind constantly dwelt on the one thought that the guards, those steel-eyed guards, would be especially alert tonight, for tonight, with its dense fog, was a good night for gambling, with death as the penalty and freedom the prize.

The search-light passed; Peter lifted his head and listened hard, then once again began his one

SENIOR PROSE THIRD PRIZE ETERNAL TRADITIONS

In our village, situated in the mountains of Greece, my people have little time to spend on anything else except the daily caring for the crops and domestic animals. But every year they take time out from their labour and head to the little church for an all-day festival. This festival is for the purpose of thanking God for all that He has given us and all that He may give us during the next year. The festival starts with the morning being spent at the church praying. As soon as the sun has risen directly overhead, the whole village strolls to a huge plain next to the mighty river which divides our village in two. Here, each family sits on the naked earth and commences to eat their lunch which consists of milk or wine, lamb or beef, cheese and home-made bread.

Finally when the eating has finished, the priest calls all the people together. The most thrilling part of the celebration is coming. To see if we will have a good year, the priest throws the gold cross of the church into the rough water of our river. Then all the young men of our village line each bank of the river. After a prayer from the priest, each young man dives into the angry water in search of the gold cross, which is about one foot long. If the cross is not found, the elder tribesmen feel that God will leave our village and that danger will be all around us. If the cross is found, our village will celebrate that night with dancing, drinking and singing. Also the person who is lucky enough to find the cross will be especially blessed by the priest and will be admired by everyone in the village for years to come.

This year we have been lucky again. The cross has been found and everyone in the village feels secure that the coming year will be a prosperous one.

SI VACRATSIS, 13B

way trek across this little bit of hell. To Peter, each precious foot of ground gained was a small victory, and each obstacle passed, an act of God. Peter had prayed hard for this night; now there was no going back.

Slowly but inevitably Peter neared the wall. The dull murmur of traffic and the hazy glow of night-life in the West stood out in sharp contrast to his own world's leaden silence, which was punctuated only by the guards' heavy footsteps. Peter was so close he could smell freedom in his nostrils. Now was the time to cast off the cloak of caution and gamble on the final barrier.

Clutching his cross, Peter ran for the cold stone wall. With a bound he was on top. How near victory seemed! Then with panic and dismay, Peter realized he was hopelessly entangled in the cruel barbed-wire. Instantly the guards reacted like coiled steel springs and before Peter could cry, a staccato of gunfire blared forth.

Peter had gambled and lost.

C.O.'s MESSAGE

In 1922, a tradition was begun at Walkerville—one which has thrived on, surpassing all others. It is that of Walkerville's cadet corps. But it is not just any cadet corps. It is organized by, directed by, and composed of the student body. Since this is so, there must be an opportunity for these students to gain knowledge by training in order that there will be student leaders.

This is one of the purposes of N. C. O. parades. Junior Non-Commissioned Officers, made up of Grade 9 young men learn the elementary rudiments of military training. The senior N. C. O.'s review what they have learned and discover what they have not.

N. C. O. training is not merely for the purpose of learning how to drill properly and salute smartly. Strict and fair discipline gives the student strong qualities of leadership—self-respect, self-control, self-confidence, and the ability to issue and accept orders intelligently and without question. When these leadership qualities assert themselves by the N. C. O.'s behaviour, he becomes a Commissioned Officer, and will have a hand in conducting the affairs of the corps.

But what is all this training geared to? It's all aimed at the annual Cadet Inspection in May. The latter is not merely an exhibition of what military procedure we know and can carry out, but it is a competition—a city, provincial and nation wide competition.

The Strathcona Shield is offered to the best corps in Western Ontario. The T. Roy Noble Trophy is presented to the battalion with the best inspection in Windsor. W. C. I. earned the latter, and was second in the former in 1963.

Trophies are also awarded annually only to the W. C. I. students. They are as follows: The Brynn Davies Memorial Award (Best Cadet), donated by the Venerable Arch-Deacon M. C. Davies; the Angus W. MacMillan Trophy (Best Company); and the R. J. Service Trophy (Best Platoon), donated by Mr. Service, a member of the first Walkerville Cadet Corps.

The most important part of the corps is the men of the ranks, without whom there would be no awards, no inspection, no cadet corps, no tradition.

A graduate, if asked, will probably say that the most remembered thing about cadets is not the dull ache of standing at attention for half an hour, or the intense preparation for the inspection, but the thrill following a good joint effort—the thrill of success and satisfaction.

C/Lt. Col. David L. Service.

CADET OFFICERS, 1963-1964

2nd Row Standing: Dave Norwood, Sadiq Hasnain, David Pasikov, Bruce Graham, Stuart McLeod, John Flett, Tom Vandelinder, John Pelton, Bill Hewitt, Rommell Masse.
1st Row Standing: Warren Wright, Ed Zusko, Paul Merklinger, John Curry, Jamie Holland, Scott Cowan, Arthur Tupper, Cam Innes, Charlie Clark, Barrie Smith, Art Lyon, Kim Graybiel.

INSPECTION 1963:

On May 1, 1963, the Corps paraded at Windsor Stadium. Under the command of Cadet Lieut. Col. John Smith and Cadet Major Art Stoyshin the cadets came through with flying colours, topping many previous inspections. Much of the credit for this also goes to Mr. Allison and the other instructors who aided the Corps. But special credit is due to the men in the ranks who made the Inspection possible.

The Best Company Award was presented to Cadet Major Bill Nicholl of A Company and the Best Platoon Award went to Cadet Lieut. Richard Blake of No. 9 Platoon. Cadet Major Art Stoyshin, the 2IC, received the Best Cadet Award. We have every hope that 1964 will be as good a year or even better for the Corps.

CADET OFFICERS:

This year the Battalion O.C. is Cadet Lieut.-Col. David Service. Cadet Major Arthur Zalev is the 2IC and Cadet Captain John Pelton is the Adjutant. The four companies are commanded by Cadet Majors Tim Laird, David Goodbrand, Richard Liddell, and Richard Blake.

The officers are working hard for the Inspection on May 6 and the Mess Dinner and Military Ball on May 8. They have every intention of making the Corps second to none in the spring.

CADET N.C.O.'s

Once again during the winter, the sounds of marching and commands rang out in the halls three nights a week as the N.C.O.'s of the Corps paraded. These young men attending such drills learn to march and take orders and later to give them. Those who stick with this course go on to become officers. The training they receive will greatly benefit them in later life.

OFFICERS' MESS, 1963-64

Walkerville Collegiate shares the distinction of having a Cadet Officers' Mess with few, if any, other high schools in Canada. Early in the fall the officers met to get the Mess organized and to elect a new executive. The Mess President, by military tradition the Battalion 2IC, is Art Zalev. The Secretary is Richard Liddell, the Treasurer David Goodbrand, and the Sanitation Engineer is Tim Laird. The Mess serves its most significant purpose during the Military Ball, at which time the officers invite their ladies in for refreshments.

PIPE BAND

This year, the Walkerville Pipe Band, under the able leadership of Pipe Major W.O.I. Jock Copland, M.B.E., will compete with many fine bands throughout Ontario to present Central Command at the Banff Cadet Camp in Alberta.

FOURTH COLUMN: Ken Washbrook, Doug Edwards, Ron Bailey, Ken Dowdell, Colin Tanner, Wayne Ferguson, Cliff Brouette, Bill Asselstine.

THE TARTAN TRUMPETERS

Long after parading battalions are replaced by push-button missiles and human soldiers by mechanical robots, bugles and drums will excite the spirits of young and old. Who knows why? Perhaps that unique sound, whether produced by a flourishing band or a lone bugler and drummer, offers a special evocation to the strutting soldier in each one of us.

And few are happier in conjuring up a mood than this year's Tartan Trumpeters. Its three dozen bandsmen are an even mixture of old and new members, all of which work cohesively as a unit. Their daily 8 A.M. practices were a preparation not only for the May Cadet Inspection but for the assembly and the November Armistice Day parade.

Mr. Kupnicki's excellent leadership made the Signal Corps one of the most interesting and educational extra-curricular activities in the school. We expect many signallers to qualify for their certificates and cash awards in May.

The junior girls won the S.W.O.S.S.A. Championship and Barb Long won the Junior Girls' Individual Championship by winning all three weight events. Our junior girls also came 1st in their relay in S.W.O.S.S.A.

Top: Jane Lowry.

Middle: Marg Fletcher, Ruth Fanson.

Bottom: Linda Flohr, Joan Ramin, Bonnie Storrey, Sarah Finch (standing).

One again the Walkerville cheerleaders rallied our teams to victory and encouraged school spirit throughout the school. This year they carried on a vigorous campaign by selling beanies and holding numerous cheer rallies with Mr. Russell and Mr. Kupnicki participating. The cheerleaders certainly work hard to lift the school's spirit and they deserve our support.

SOCCER

This year's soccer record leaves one with mixed feelings. The Walkerville soccer team had a record of two wins (Herman and Patterson), one tie, and four losses. It also played three exhibition games, winning 2 and losing 1. However, the team was only one point out of fourth place, but they missed the semi-finals. They did not lack desire, and it is generally felt that what was needed was more material for Mr. Altmeyer, their able coach, to work with. The team played as a unit and showed good sportsmanship through the schedule.

The team would also like to thank Mr. Testani for his assistance and moral support.

This year the Walkerville Golf Team, in the annual W.S.S.A. tournament placed third, despite their gallant efforts. They were much improved over last year, but unfortunately, as the record shows, so were Massey and Herman. Kim Graybiel and Wayne Henderson, low men, tied at 80, followed by Mike Nenadovich, 82, Robert Sneddon, 84, and Doug Stewart at 89. Next year Wayne, Mike, and Robert will graduate and we hope there will be many keen men competing to fill their places.

First Row: Sadiq Hasnain, Ken Kokanie, Jay Haddad, Colin Bradley, Rick Storrey, Charles Meanwell, Kim Graybiel, Scott Cowan, Don Morgan.

CROSS COUNTRY 1963

This year's cross country team enjoyed its greatest success since 1955, when our coach, Mr. Montour, paced his team to a W.O.S.S.A. victory. His inspiring leadership led the Harriers to a W.S.S.A. championship in both divisions. The senior team was paced by Charles Meanwell and the junior team by Rick Storrey.

The Senior, Intermediate, and Junior teams competed in S.W.O.S.S.A., in Blenheim, where the seniors tied for first place but lost by a technical margin. Against very tough competition, Charles Meanwell placed 1st, followed by Rick Storrey who finished 5th, and Colin Bradley who came in 13th. Jay Haddad placed 7th in the intermediate race, and the juniors made a very fine showing. We also sent an intermediate team to Toronto to compete in the Ontario championships.

BOYS' SENIOR VOLLEYBALL

Absent: Wayne Henderson.

BOYS' VOLLEYBALL

This year's volleyball story is one of a slow start and then a strong finish. The team lost their first three starts. However, then they began to "click" and took the next five games. With a five to three record they entered the semi-finals. Our team then played Kennedy on neutral ground at Herman. Although they put up a powerful fight, Kennedy was just too strong.

Next year nearly all of our first string will be leaving; however, I am sure our able coach, Mr. Allison, will be able to mould another good team.

FOOTBALL TEAM

3rd Row: Tom Janick, Joe Cipparone, Bob Kosma, Richard Simpson, Dave Norwood, Gordie Coss, Eugene Dubel, Rhys Popp, Ross McDonald.

FOOTBALL

This year's football team had the ability to retain the W.S.S.A. and S.W.O.S.S.A. championships at Walkerville, but bad luck and a continual series of injuries prevented them from repeating last year's performance. They did, however, overcome great odds to enter the semi-finals.

During the season the team lost the services of John Vacratsis for 4 games, Bob Anderson for the season, Jon Hyslop 3 games, Art Tupper 4 games, Frank Bellavy 7 games, Ed Tremaine 3 games, Tom Janick 6 games, Bill Tkach 5 games, and Brian Spooner 2 games.

Despite their injuries, the never-say-die Tartans gathered their forces for the first Kennedy game, to trounce the opposition everywhere, except on the scoreboard. Then, with their backs to the wall, the Tartans fought with animal-like desire, to conquer in the next four games, 38-12, 15-7, 33-0, 13-7. Then the Tartans, tired, went into the semi-finals against Kennedy. This was their third test of endurance in eight days. The backfield contained three limping, wounded players, two with casts and one with a brace. In spite of this, they put up a game fight against the victorious Kennedy team.

There was one all-city player this year from Walkerville: Jon Hyslop. Gerry Kwapisz, Bob Dafoe, Joe Cipparone, Cam Innes, and Ron Shulgan made the second and third teams.

Mr. Kupnicki, Mr. O'Connor, and Head Coach Mr. Marchini did a fine job to try to keep the Tartans on top.

Although unsuccessful in winning the championship this year, there is a bright light for the future; most of the team will be back. Just wait until next year!

SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

Left to Right: Bruce Goodbrand, Geoffrey Hayman, Willy Mlacak, Joe Cipparone, Doug Stewart, Mr. Montour (coach), Cliff Reaume, Brian Urquart (manager), Jon Elcombe, David Service, John Stein, John Palko, Cam Innes.

Absent: Bill Millar, Silas Vaccratsis, John Zdrahal.

SENIOR BASKETBALL TEAM

This was a year of change for our Senior Basketball Team. The W.S.S.A. was organized into two divisions, the schedule was doubled, each team playing every other team twice, and Walkerville gained a new coach, Mr. Montour.

The Walkerville Seniors played well and as a unit under Mr. Montour's guidance. They stacked up a 9 win, 3 loss record and were on a 6 game winning streak when they entered the semi-finals against Kennedy. Unfortunately, however, our Seniors were shaded 59 to 48 despite a hard, well-contested game.

Cliff Reaume gained a guard position in the elite All-City Team. John Zdrahal made the second team as a forward. Congratulations.

BOYS' SWIMMING TEAM

Back Row: Mr. Orr (coach), Scott Cowan, Ian Hooley, Peter Kelly, Guido Van Rosendaal, Barry Smith, Preben Andersen.

Diving Board: Jon Hough, Ron Packer, Gordon Gauthier, Richard Easton, Jan Maltby, Ken Latimer, Kim Graybiel, Tom Sprague, Bob Messer, Tim Laird, Barry Spooner.

Kneeling: John Topping, Eli Sunkunda, William Curry.

Absent: Chris Riley, James Dunn, David Saltmarche, Charles Gauthier, Patrick Marcus, Brian Bigelow.

BOYS' SWIMMING TEAM

For the first time in many years the senior boys were major contenders in the W.S.S.A. meet and came second to Kennedy by 9½ points.

Individual Champion: Ian Hooley

Individual Winners: Richard Finley

Preben Andersen
Scott Cowan

3rd — 100 yds. Breast Stroke.

2nd — 100 yds. Backstroke.

The Freestyle Relay was second. The Medley Relay was third.

The junior boys showed great improvement this year and will certainly be in contention next year. Barrie Spooner, with a 2nd in the 50 yards backstroke, was the only individual winner.

The LYNN TROPHY was won by Cathy Meanwell, Mary-Lynn Anderson, Barrie Spooner and Ian Hooley.

Back Row: John Vacratsis, Peter Dunn, Don Morgan, Marv Routliffe, Rhys Popp, Bob Kozma, John Basich, Art Lyon, Richard Shanbaum.
Front Row: Mr. B. W. Brown, Ken Kokanie, Reed Smith, Jim Fletcher, Jay Haddad, Walter Lozynsky, Mr. Armstrong.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Led by the extremely fine coaching of Mr. Armstrong, the Tartan hoopers captured their sixth consecutive regional championship. Travelling undefeated to their last game of the regular season schedule, the Tartans bowed to a stubborn Kennedy team 38-34. The team suffered another miserable loss to the Kennedy juniors in the W.S.S.A. finals 36-32.

Encountering the juniors from Chatham-Tecumseh in the S.W.O.S.S.A. preliminaries, Walkerville trampled the visitors 39-24. Receiving their last opportunity to face the Kennedy team, the Tartans trounced the favoured juniors 35-26 in the S.W.O.S.S.A. finals.

Walkerville travelled throughout the entire season with an undecided first string consisting of: John "The Hands" Basich, Johnny Vacratsis, Marv Routliffe, Bob Kozma, Ken Kokanie, Don Morgan, and Walter Lozynski.

The team wishes to thank the teachers and students for their support during the season, and is looking forward to another fine season next year.

Our congratulations to Mr. Armstrong and the team for their outstanding play and success this year.

BOYS' CURLING

Bryan Keen, Scott Cowan, Brian Spooner and Vern Smith, representing Walkerville in the Canadian Schoolboys' playdown, won the district crown. They were defeated in Division Playoff in Sarnia. This same team entered S.W.O.S.S.A., but lost the final game by one point to Massey. During Easter Holidays, Walkerville claimed the Pat Hayden Trophy, which was open to all Windsor secondary schools.

SOCIAL EVENTS

On September 4, Walkerville Collegiate began its social season with the traditional opening event—a mass reunion of hundreds of “eager” students in the main hall. During that first week many tall tales of summer adventures were exchanged.

In the next few weeks, the “old grind routine” gradually set in. For the bewildered freshmen it was an opportunity to learn many new things such as wearing shirts and pants backwards and shoes reversed and generally waiting on the senior classmen. Be Kind to Grade Niners Month (Initiation Month) ended with a Get Acquainted Dance in the gym.

By this time the new Agora had been elected and had held a meeting. The Executive was introduced to students at an exciting assembly on October 1.

The football season was soon upon us and many spirited Walkervillites attended the games in all kinds of weather. The team played well, but unfortunately 1963 was not meant to be a repeat of 1962 as the Tartans only made the semi-finals.

The fall months also saw dances, a few assemblies, and the organization of other sports and clubs. The highlight of the season was the Mikado Ball (formerly the Chanson D'Amour) on November 9. The affair was a roundabout and was quite a success.

Exams soon came and halted all social functions for the next few weeks. After exams, basketball and swimming were begun. Christmas Vacation arrived and with it the Graduation. It was a memorable event as many parents, friends, and graduates crowded into the auditorium. The ceremony was concluded with the Valedictory Address by Ellen May and afterwards Walkerville renewed old acquaintances and made new ones.

The new year brought in an important basketball season. Great things are expected of our teams which have all been working hard to win. In interform basketball the 13A Raiders are expected to really shine and win the interclass championship. 1964 should definitely be a year for basketball.

Easter exams came earlier this year than usual and naturally interfered with social activities. As of this writing there are two important events scheduled for the winter or early spring—the annual drama production and the Rhapsody in Blue and White—both of which promise to be excellent. During Easter Vacation, Walkerville will be holding an activities night which is usually well attended.

The grand finale of the Walkerville Social Whirl will be the Military Ball on May 8. Reflecting back to May, 1963,—to the skirl of pipes as the Grand March was led by Cadet Lieutenant-Col. John Henry Smith and his lady—I know everyone is looking forward to this year's Ball eagerly. As usual the girls will start buttering up the cadets early in April, but this is part of the military tradition.

Afterward, only the big ordeal in June is left. 1963-1964 has been a good year and has provided fond memories for all. We on the Blue and White wish to take this opportunity to wish the student body good luck and much success in future years.

CONSTANTINE ANDREOPOULOS, OUR FOSTER CHILD

September, 1963

My respected Foster Parents:

Good day to you. I pray my letter may find you in perfect health and joy just as we are similarly keeping fine. The schools have now opened and I feel a happiness beyond description. For I have met my friends again after a period of three months. On the 8th of this month it was a feast-day and a public festival was held for the occasion. All the villagers who happened to be away in various towns came back for the occasion. We attended the church service and then went back home at noon for lunch. In the afternoon we went to the school where dancing was performed in the yard. In the evening there was much merriment and we all had a most enjoyable time. We are now collecting the various kinds of beans. We are also making preparations for the fair to be held on the 27th of the month. The weather has turned cold and is no longer hot. I thank you and I kiss your hand. Your foster son,

November, 1963

My respected Foster Parents:

Good morning! I wish that my present letter may find you all full of good health and joy. We are fine ourselves. A few days ago we had rains and floodings but now the weather is a real blessing of God. The farmers are all scattered in the fields with their ploughs and oxen and others are sowing the wheat and other cereals. The leaves of some of the trees are turning yellow and falling. Some of the trees like the firs and cedars do not shed their leaves in the fall. On November 10 we had three weddings in our village. We also celebrated the marriage of my sister. From the bridegroom's home all the family arrived with music at their head and riding horses or other animals. We left the house all of us together and went to church where the “crowning” took place by the “koumbaros” (T.N. Best man, it can also be a woman in our faith). After that we came back home and loaded the bride's dowry on the beasts, the bride herself also rode a horse and we set off for the bridegroom's home. From her mount the bride threw apples to the crowd. At my lessons I am doing very well. Our teacher takes us for hikes as the weather is good. Thank you for the present you sent me, you cannot figure my joy. I greet you and kiss your hand.
Your foster son, Constantine ANDREOPOULOS.

what does it take to open this door?

It takes intelligence, initiative, desire. It takes young men and women capable of benefiting from a university education. And it takes money. Since 1955, the General Motors companies in Canada have provided over 225 deserving students with the opportunity of completing their higher education. Twenty-five scholarships are granted each year. Each scholarship may extend through four years and be worth as much as $2,000 a year. Grants are also made direct to universities. The participating universities select the scholarship winners and set the amounts of the awards. Selection of studies is made by the student. At GM we regard this as a double investment, for those who have the ability to open the door to University are also opening a second door—to Opportunity.

Applications for General Motors Scholarships should be directed to the Registrars of the following participating universities: The University of Toronto; The University of Western Ontario, London; Queen's University, Kingston; The University of Montreal; The University of Manitoba, Winnipeg; The University of British Columbia, Vancouver; The University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon; The University of Alberta, Edmonton; The University of New Brunswick, Fredericton; Laval University, Quebec City; McGill University, Montreal; Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland; Dalhousie University, Halifax; and McMaster University, Hamilton.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY EXECUTIVE

Mr. Hockey (producer), Miss Robbins (costumes), Jim Lynd (stage manager), Donna Starnichuk (president), Mr. Thomas (director), Marilyn Haddad (secretary).

DRAMATIC SOCIETY

We are certain that all members will remember the 1963-1964 season with pride and pleasure. This season we diversified our activities somewhat, having a Set Construction Group which concentrated solely on the creation of scenery and stage properties under the direction of Mr. Hockey. We must also mention the assistance given in this area by Mr. William Sandford, the resident Stage Manager of the Windsor Little Theatre whose stage experience proved invaluable. Assisting were: Jim Lynd, Donna Starnichuk, Barbara Long, Kathy Cernauskas, Jim MacDonald, Mary Boyd, Mary Jessop, and Mary Clark.

Our players in this year's production all worked extremely hard to make "The Importance of Being Earnest" a great success. Our actors were younger, in the main, than in previous years with little or no theatre experience; but a director could not have wished for a more co-operative and hard working team. Those behind the footlights were: Bob Asselstine, John McLennan, Ken Copeman, Richard Easton, Joe Stewart, Bonnie Gow, Mary McConville, Kathy Seagull, and Connie Clarkson.

Next year we will continue our effort to bring "good" theatre to Walkerville and to Windsor.

SCIENCE FAIR

At the Science Fair held at St. Denis hall of the University of Windsor, Walkerville walked off with most of the prizes.

Wendy Steele won first prize in the chemistry category. Wendy's project was chosen as one of the top four to be shown at the Science Fair in Montreal in April. Gail Croll, Stephanie Glos and Margie Filman came first in the group display. Cam Brown, Jeff Nicholl and Bob McArthur came in second. Mary Masse placed first in the field of mathematics, Rommel Masse placed second and Sherry Meloche third. Barry Spooner placed third in the field of photography.

The plaques for the winners were presented at a special assembly. Next year we hope Walkerville will be as successful as this year.

SECRETARIES

Our special thanks go to Miss Zilda McKelvie, Miss Patricia McMullen and Miss Joan Halsey, the secretaries, for their diligent work in the office. They greatly helped the Blue and White, the Agora, other organizations and the student body in general by typing notices and various other forms.

MAINTENANCE STAFF

Mrs. Allevato, Mr. Pete Karlechuk, Mr. Vic DiPietro, Mr. Robert Green, Mr. Yuri Toroshenko, and Mr. Jim Brown are responsible for the well kept appearance of our school and for retrieving lost books and other articles for us. The entire student body thanks the maintenance staff.

HOSTESS CLUB

Rear Row: Pat Lossowski, Donna Baird, Janice Drakich, Carolyn Chinouard, Janette Daabous, Pam Ebbinghaus, Sandy Leishman, Kathy Gilbert, Rhonda Beck, Carol Vizard, Margo Bowey, Susan Gee, Emily Lozynsky, Mrs. Haller.

HOSTESS CLUB

The Hostess Club is in its first year and should prove beneficial to all girls, especially those interested in a career in Home Economics. The year has been very successful with Emily Kolody, president; Linda Krawczyk, secretary; and Margaret McCallum, publicity convenor. The membership was limited to twenty girls who formulated a course to follow to earn promotion in the organization, based on learning new skills for the girl herself, and on giving service to the school. Such service has been rendered by keeping the cookie canister full for use at teacher's meetings, serving at the school graduation, and checking coats at the Mikado Ball. The girls have profited from the year and have enjoyed their Hostess Club.

HISTORY AND U.N. CLUB

John Pelton, Miss Falls, Art Zalev.

HISTORY AND U.N. CLUB

Constant tension in South-East Asia has added considerable interest to our visit to the Model United Nations at the University of Detroit, as we are representing Burma this year. This country has a strategic importance, realized by both Russia and America. Investigating Burma's policy as it tries to keep independent provides an interesting experience. History in the making is never stale, and all the members of the club, Art Zalev, Bob Atkinson, Dave Ferguson, Dave Franklin, and John Pelton, take pride in keeping abreast with the changing world.

UNITED NATIONS TRIP

On October 24th, 1963, nine girls from Windsor landed in New York City. I was one of that eager group. Our stay was short, but we took in all of the city we could in four days. The United Nations was frightening in its immensity. The vastness of the organization and its many intricacies gave me a feeling of confidence. For the first time I realized how little it took to start a war and how much to prevent one. One might ask what such a trip would accomplish. To put it very simply, nine girls came back home a little wiser. My sincere thanks to 12D.

MARY McCONVILLE

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

Mr. C. Russel, Bob Messer, Ron Blake, Gail Thornton, Cathy Coste, Ken Dowdell, Mike Beaton, Colleen Mackle.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

The Geography Club is a small, militant group devoted to the increase of knowledge of life and leisure beyond their own immediate spheres of experience. Such increases of knowledge are gained through experiences in new situations of travel, discussion, or meeting with people who have visited other areas and report their experiences to us. They are not merely "joiners", but enjoy contributing themselves and they appreciate the contribution of others. We extend an invitation to all students at Walkerville to come and make a contribution themselves and to enjoy the contribution of others.

ART CLUB

Cheryl Wild (Supplies Officer), Doug Ferguson (President), Mr. Cruickshank, Carolyn Gaskin (Secretary), Sally Turnbull (Treasurer).

Absent: Libby Havelock.

The Art Club got off to a late start this year. At the beginning of the second term, Mr. Cruickshank became the club sponsor. The club's main programme is to perform services for the other clubs, such as making posters and decorations for school dances.

MODEL CLUB

Jim Smith, David Elliston, Larry Nolan, Mr. Parr, Jerry Baldwin, Grant Gibson.

The Model Club consists of boys throughout the school who wish to use the equipment in the Industrial Arts Shop. Gun racks, T.V. stands, lamps, stools, utility tables, and water skis are made by the members, chiefly in the senior grades, who do not take Industrial Arts. We would like to thank Mr. Parr for his instruction and guidance.

CAMERA CLUB

Bill Barton, Ron Warbe, Mr. McLeod, Walter McGregor, Grant Gibson.

THE CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club has its first meeting each fall, under the direction of a staff member, Mr. McLeod. It is not necessary to own a camera or to have had any experience in photographic work.

MATH CLUB

3rd Row: Richard Manningham, Charles Silinskas, Jerry Rakus, Rommel Masse, Mary Kelch, Faith Baldwin, Mary Lynn Anderson, Eva Kalman, Bev Buckanan.

2nd Row: Art Lyon, Paul Stewart, Kirk Lyon, Terry Machina, Susan Mitchell, Cathy Stewart, Stephanie Glos, Cathy Sinclair.

1st Row: Kim Graybiel, Jay Haddad, Janis Craig, Linda Pelton, Mr. Lozinski, Mary Jessup, Sally Turnbull, Mary Masse.

CHESS CLUB

Mr. W. Hockey, Ken Dowdell, Richard Simpson.

HOCKEY'S POCKETBOOK CLUB (H.P.C.) AND FAD MAGAZINE

H.P.C. is not a club in the sense that it has an executive committee or holds regular meetings. Its only executive is Mr. Hockey and its only membership meetings occur at the book shelves where borrowers jostle each other for space. The purpose of the club is to allow book-lovers to enjoy themselves by reading what they like most. The club, founded last year, continues to operate on the funds derived from membership fees and the sale of FAD magazine.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

Third Row: Judy Kwapisz, Colleen Markle, Cathy Meanwell, Fran Jenich, Arlene Hutton.

11A Once upon a time CONNIE AND 'ER SON were walking through the GREEN woods with Uncle THOMP' SON and his friends. In a HALLOW of BURCH trees, blue JAYS screeched a warning of an approaching LYON. They saw a solitary ASH tree near a WELL. A MASSE of GRAY BEATLES were trooping over a small CRAIG of stone. A SEAGULL overhead told them they were approaching the sea. Suddenly rain started PELTON' down. They ran for cover from A CLEOD burst, and one girl shouted, "KA'MON". Tired and soaked they entered a cave where they feasted on an apple KORE they found in a NICH.

LYNDA grabbed it but JOE threw a CLAUD ETTE her. Having cooked and eaten a STEW, ART was sick. Hearing a TOM-tom, ELIZABETH began COLL EEN', "Have FAITH", so they all ZAPPIOed out of the cave like horses without RIDER'S. Reaching a stream they couldn't decide whether to READ 'ER TURN and watch the BULLs in the field. ALLAN came up with the earth-shaking quotation, "Most bulls MEANWELL but they don't make very good TAYLORS." MARY was finally getting a summer tan, as she hadn't been able to get a WINTER BURN. Returning home, they all agreed that they HAD DAD a very exciting time.

- (10) Have Liz translate a simple sentence into hillbilly German. Have Dietmar translate it back into English.
- (11) Have every student in 10H pass and observe Mr. McLeod.
- (12) Place Viki and Bill in a room together for 15 minutes.
- (13) Put Barb J. on a desert island where Frank cannot find her.
- (14) Give Phil some rollers for Christmas.

Observations:

(1) In the back of the room a group of treacherous individuals pour out their over-exuberant verbosity while Mike Wood proves his strength at Indian wrestling. At the front a group of ambitious students start last night's homework.

(2) He will arrive to Math class on time—with his striped pants.

(3) She has successfully started a whispering campaign.

(4) Peace and quiet returns to 10H.

(5) The sleepers at the back of the room awoken to the fact that someone is answering.

(6) Mr. Vodarek has begun to rip out his hair and go slightly mad.

(7) With due respect she gives them proper burial.

(8) The course is changed.

(9) Good things come in small packages. Man—what packages.

(10) Great Confusion.

(11) Unable to take the great shock he hands in his resignation.

(12) Bill has finally achieved the art of making paper dolls and spends all his spare time at it.

(13) She is so deliriously happy she remains there. Frank doesn't look very hard.

(14) Being as he never uses anything but Pink spoolies he gives the rollers to Paul Love who is more concerned with his hair-do.

(15) It is decided Ken's are the sweetest smelling—that alluring wild rose aroma.

(16) Reputation or "REPETITION"?

Conclusion: A little nutty maybe—but a fine bunch!

9H

Weary from a day with 9H, Mr. O'Connor retires for the night only to have this unusual dream: Marilyn rushed at him crying squeakily, "You've got to have lunch with us!" Stuart crept out of a corner and stared at him with enormous eyes. Down from the ceiling on a spider web dropped Karen swinging to and fro. Wondering what to eat, Mr. O'Connor lifted the cover of the lunch only to find David B. dabbling in the gravy, Jim peering out of the mashed potatoes and Ken poised on a lettuce leaf. In a cup of tea floated Sharon G. gargling noisily. With a lost appetite he proceeded to the next room. Rhonda, Gail and Sharon S. drifted through a window and began soaring above Mr. O'Connor's head. Kathy R. hopped from the cupboard while Margo leaped from the mantel shelf. David P. sprang up from the rug where he had been sleeping. Through the bars of his birdcage, Scot grinned foolishly at him. From under the table crawled Carol and Kathy G. giggling hysterically. The room was now quite crowded. Pat began jumping up and down impatiently. Alan came and lay at his feet. Joanne made a dreadful clatter to attract his attention. When Mr. O'Connor tried to sit on a chair he got up in a hurry to find he was on Ross. While trying to escape from this confusion he tripped over Diane and knocked over Bev and Phil who were loitering in the doorway. He just about fell over Mike and Walter who were playing "Ring around the Rosy". Glancing up he saw Bob and Janet floating skyward in a balloon. Emily appeared on an egg beater and with a hairpin broke the balloon—BANG! Mr. O'Connor's dream was at an end.
